

Group Visits: Towneley Hall

Towneley Hall dates from the 14th century and is set in beautiful parkland on the edge of the town centre. Here you can meet Richard Towneley and his family as they go about their everyday lives in the 1680's and you can see the period rooms and collections in this magnificent historic house which is also an art gallery and museum. An optional visit can be made to the Museum of Local History in the brewhouse next to the hall.
