

Group Visits: Towneley Garden Centre

Come along and meet gardening writer and BBC Radio Lancashire's gardening expert Phil Calvert who will be delighted to answer any of your gardening queries. This delightful garden centre in the grounds of Towneley Park sells herbaceous plants, alpines, conifers, trees, shrubs and houseplants; there's bound to be something to suit your home or garden. Afternoon tea is served in the Four Seasons café adjoining the large shop where you will find an abundance of garden sundries.
